

International Day of Sport for Development and Peace — APRIL

WHAT IS CELEBRATED ON APRIL 6TH ?

April6 was declared the International Day of Sport for Development and Peace (IDSDP) by the United Nations General Assembly in 2013 with the support of the International Olympic Committee, and has been celebrated each year ever since 2014.

WHY DO WE CELEBRATE THIS DAY?

This day provides an annual opportunity to celebrate the power of sport to drive social change, community development, to encourage equity and inclusion and to foster peace and understanding between individuals, communities and nations.

HOW CAN YOU BE PART OF THIS DAY?

Getting mobilized this day means you share the vision that sport can help to change the world. It means you will be joining a global community committed to take big or small actions on this day. Once you have decided your action it is important that you register it on www.april6.org to be part of the global network.

Sport is an answer.
Raise your #WhiteCard.

SHARE your story

You can take part to the mobilization by sharing concrete examples of peace-through-sport programs or personal stories which highlight how sport could be an answer to social issues.

Here are some suggestions on how to get involved.
